On his latest collection, the perfectly titled Classics, Jessie presents a dynamic set of compelling highlights of his expansive, ever-evolving artistry via 10 hand-selected tracks from throughout his career, covering a time span from 1983's Heaven Sent (which was released on digital in 2004) through Let's Connect in the late 2000s. Incredibly, "In the Mountains," a dreamy, intoxicating soprano sax and kalimba duet with late kalimba player Buddy Kithara (featuring a beautiful soundscape of nature sounds), from Heaven Sent, continues to receive regular airplay on Sirius/XM's Spa channel.

"It has been a true blessing to be able to share my framing talents and music with the world for so many years," Jessie says. "Sometimes, it feels as though these creative expressions are coming from somewhere beyond me in the universe, and my goal is always to go deep enough into my spirit to pull the greatest source of inspiration out."
